Re: Baltimore airtel, 5/17/68.

Referenced airtel requested examination of ashes for purposes of identifying burned items as Selective Service (SS) records. USA has advised that entire material need not be examined but that a representative number should be examined to identify them as SS records. In this respect, documents reflecting names of registrants and SS numbers would identify the material which was burned as official records which had been on fire at LB 33, Selective Service System. Therefore, examination should determine whether such specific information is disclosed.

Item two in referenced letter reflects that two cans with flammable liquid were submitted. Subsequent investigation disclosed that the nine subjects arrested remarked that that this liquid was napalm which was made by them from a handbook printed by the government.

Above for assistance in conducting required examination.

Draft Records Napalmed by 9

By William R. MacKaye
Washington Post Staff Writer

Nine persons, five of them Washington residents and six of them present or former members of Roman Catholic religious orders, were arrested in a Baltimore suburb yesterday after burning draft board records with homemade napalm.

Two of those arrested, the Rev. Philip Berrigan and Thomas P. Lewis, both of Baltimore, were convicted last month for spilling blood in the files of another Baltimore draft board.

Among the others arrested were three former members of the Maryknoll missionaries in Guatemala who are organizing a foundation to promote revolution in Latin America. They are Thomas Melville, his wife, Marjorie, and John Hogan, all of whom have been living recently in Washington.

Also arrested were the Rev. Daniel Berrigan, Father Philip Berrigan's brother, a poet and chaplain at Cornell University; Brother David Darst, a St. Louis school teacher; George Mische, a Washington peace movement organizer, and Mary Moylan, a Washington nurse.

Mary Murphy, chief clerk of the Catonsville draft board, told United Press International the nine emptied the contents of four file drawers into two large baskets. The baskets were then taken outside to the parking lot and set afire.

Each of the file drawers contained 150 individual draft records, Mrs. Murphy said.

The group was standing around the flames praying when policemen and firemen arrived, the Associated Press said. Most of the records by then had been reduced to ashes blowing about the parking lot.

In a prepared statement which they distributed to bystanders, the group said, "We destroyed these records because they exploit our young men and represent misplaced power, concentrated in the ruling class of America . . . We are Catholic Christians who take the gospel of our faith seriously."

Stephen H. Sachs, U.S. Attorney for Maryland, said the nine were turned over to the FBI four hours after their arrest by Baltimore County police.

He said they would be charged with destruction of government property, mutilation of government records, impeding Selective Service processes and conspiracy.

Sachs said it was too early to tell what impact the burning of the records would have on the board's operation. Donald S. Sharpe, an assistant U.S. Attorney said the files could be reconstructed from other sources but that the process would take "considerable" time.

Last November, inductions were halted for several months after the protesters damaged records with blood at the Baltimore board office. Drafting was stopped there so that no one would be unfairly drafted out of sequence.

Re Baltimore airtel to Bureau, 5/20/68 and Baltimore report of SA [REDACTED] 5/23/68.

Enclosed herewith is one copy of a press statement identical to the one previously submitted as enclosure to referenced airtel. This particular statement was obtained from a member of the press in Baltimore who had obtained it in a sealed envelope from [REDACTED]

In an effort to determine whether [REDACTED] had placed this statement in the envelope, it is requested that the statement be examined for any latent fingerprints for comparison with the prints of [REDACTED] if available.

It is realized that a number of individuals other than the press member handled this document. The identification of others who may have handled it is unknown. However, it is felt that this examination is warranted inasmuch as a print thereon identifiable with [REDACTED] could implicate him further, considering an additional Counseling and Aiding violation.

Preliminary information has been received from the Baltimore Office to the effect that eight individuals led by Father Phillip Berrigan, the Catholic priest who has been convicted and is awaiting sentence on a previous incident involving the spilling of blood on Selective Service records in the Baltimore, Maryland, draft board office, today forcibly took records from a Catonsville, Maryland, draft board and thereafter burned the records in the street. According to a report received, a female Selective Service employee was cut during the incident.

On April 16, 1968, Father Berrigan and three others including a Protestant clergyman were convicted on a charge of interference of administration of the Selective Service Act and destruction of government property as a result of their appearing at a Baltimore draft board in October, 1967, and pouring blood over Selective Service files.

ACTION

1. The Baltimore Office has initiated immediate investigation and is to keep the Bureau currently advised of developments.

2. The Crime Records Division has been advised in connection with possible press interest.

3. The Baltimore Office has been instructed to promptly furnish information concerning the actions of Father Berrigan in this incident to the district court in Baltimore where action concerning the sentencing of Father Berrigan is awaiting completion of pre-sentence investigation by the Federal probation officer.

PRESS STATEMENT (for immediate release)

Today, May 17, 1968, we enter Local Board No.33 at Catonsville, Md., to seize the Selective Service records and burn them outside with napalm manufactured by ourselves from a recipe in the Special Forces Handbook, published by the U.S. government. b7C

We, American citizens, have worked with the Poor in the ghetto and abroad. In the course of our Christian ministry we have watched our country produce more victims than an army of us could console or restore. Two of us face immediate sentencing for similar acts against Selective Service. All of us identify with the victims of American oppression all over the world. We submit voluntarily to their involuntary fate.

We use napalm on these draft records because napalm has burned people to death in Vietnam, Guatemala and Peru; and because it may be used on America's ghettos. We destroy these draft records not only because they exploit our young men, but because these records represent misplaced power, concentrated in the ruling class of America. Their power threatens the peace of the world and is aloof of public dissent and parliamentary process. The draft reduces young men to cost efficiency items. The rulers of America want their global wars fought as cheaply as possible.

Above all, our protest attempts to illustrate why our country is torn at home and is harrassed abroad by enemies of its own creation. America has become an empire and history's richest nation. Representing only 6% of the world's people, America controls half of the world's productive wealth and sixty percent of its finance. The U.S. holds North and South America in an economic vise. In ten years time American industry in Europe will be the third greatest industrial power in the world, with only the United States and the Soviet Union being larger. U.S. foreign profits run substantially higher than domestic profits so industry flees abroad under government patronage and the protection of the CIA, military, counter insurgency and conflict management teams.

The military supports the economic system by joining with the business and political sectors to form the triumvirate of power in this technocratic empire. With our annual budget of $80 billion plus, the military now controls over half of the Federal property in the world (53% or $183 billion). U.S. overkill capacity and conventional weaponry exceeds that of the military might of the entire world.

Peace negotiations with the North Vietnamese have begun in Paris. Along with other Americans we hope a settlement will be reached, thus sparing the Vietnamese a useless prolongation of their suffering. However, this alone will not solve America's problems. The Vietnam War could end tomorrow and yet leave the quality of society and America's role in the world virtually unchanged. Thailand, Laos and the Dominican Republic have already been Vietnams. Guatemala, the Canal Zone, Bolivia and Peru could be Vietnams overnight. Meanwhile, the colonies at home rise in rage and destructiveness. The black people of America have concluded that after 360 years, their acceptance as human beings is long overdue.

Injustice is the great catalyst of revolution. A nation that found life through revolution has now become the world's number one counterrevolutionary force, not because American people would have it that way, but because the rich choose to defend their power and wealth. The masters of the trusts and corporate giants, along with their representatives in Washington, must learn the hard lessons of justice, or a country may be swept away and humanity with it.

We believe some property has no right to exist. Hitler's gas ovens, Stalin's concentration camps, atomic-bacteriological-chemical weaponry, files of conscription and slum properties are examples having no right to existence. While people starve for bread and lack decent housing the rich debase themselves with comfort paid for by the misery of the poor.

We are Catholic Christians who take the Gospel of our Faith seriously. We hail the recent Papal Encyclical, "The Development of Peoples". Quotes such as the following give us hope:

#23 No one is justified in keeping for his exclusive use what he does not need, when others lack necessities.

#31 A revolutionary uprising - save where there is open manifest and long standing tyranny which does great damage to fundamental personal rights and dangerous harm to the common good of the country - produces new injustices, throws more elements out of balance and brings on new disasters.

#32 We want to be clearly understood: the present situation must be faced with courage, and the injustices linked with ~~it must be fought against and overcome.~~ Development demands bold transformations, innovations that go deep. Urgent reforms should be undertaken without delay. It is for each one to take his share in them with generosity, particularly those whose education, position and opportunities afford them wide scope of action.

#47 It is a question of building a world where every man, no matter what his race, religion or nationality, can live a fully human life, freed from slavery imposed on him by other men or by natural forces; a world where the poor man Lazarus can sit down at the same table with the rich man.

#80 The hour for action has now sounded. At stake are the survival of so many innocent children and for so many families overcome of misery, the access to conditions fit for human beings; at stake are the peace of the world and the future of civilization.

At the same time, we confront the Catholic Church, other Christian bodies and the synagogues of America with their silence and cowardice in face of our country's crimes. We are convinced that the religious bureaucracy in this country is racist, is an accomplice in war and is hostile to the poor. In utter fidelity to our Faith, we indict the religious leaders and their followers for their failure to serve our country and mankind.

Finally, we are appalled by the ruse of the American ruling class invoking the cry for "Law and Order" to mask and perpetuate injustice. Let our President and the pillars of society speak of "Law and Justice", and back up their words with deeds and there will be "Order".-- We have pleaded, spoken, marched and nursed the victims of their injustice. Now this injustice must be faced, and this we intend to do, with whatever strength of mind, body and grace that God will give us. May God have mercy on our nation.

II. INVESTIGATION AT SCENE

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date May 24, 19681

After observing the outside area, at approximately 1:30 p.m. on May 17, 1968, including the parking lot adjacent to the Knights of Columbus Building, Frederick and Beaumont Avenues, SA [] proceeded to the office of Local Board #33 by means of the rear stairway. Upon arrival at the office it was observed that several individuals, believed to be from the newspapers, were observed in the room adjacent to Local Board #33, and on the stairway several were carrying cameras.

b7C

Upon entering Local Board #33 it was immediately observed that a number of file cabinet drawers, to the right of the entrance, were partially open and a number of records were observed strewn all over the floor.

It was observed that [] Chief Clerk, Local Board #33, was being treated for a cut on her right hand.

Aside from the personnel assigned to Local Board #33, it was also observed that three other individuals from the Headquarters of the Selective Service System were in this room.

It was first noted that a front window pane was broken and that individuals present were quite emotionally upset.

At 1:26 pm on May 17, 1968, SA [redacted] arrived at the parking lot of the Knights of Columbus Building of Frederick Road and Beaumont Avenue, where Local Board #33 is located in the second floor of the 3 story wood frame building.

Members of the Baltimore County Police Bureau and firemen from the Catonsville Station of the Baltimore County Fire Bureau were observed in the parking lot situated on the Northeast side of the building where they had isolated a mound of burned material in the center of the parking lot which covered an area of about 6 feet. There were also two empty wire trash burning baskets on the mound. The fire had been extinguished by the police.

Two uncapped one gallon cans, which were partially filled with an unknown liquid were observed on the ground about 15 feet from the burned material. One large can was found about 10 feet from the burned material. A leaflet concerning the protest of use of Napalm was near the cans. One small fire extinguisher was found about 10 feet from the mound of ashes. Photographs of the burned area and the building were taken by SA [redacted]

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1Date 5/23/68

[redacted] Clerk, Local Board #33, displayed to SA [redacted] the file drawers from which Selective Service records had been removed by the individuals who entered this office this date. These drawers contained files of registrants in the following categories:

b7C

Those available for induction; those whose induction was postponed; those who had been ordered for induction; those who had reported for induction but whose papers had not been returned from the induction station; those classified II-A; and those classified I-Y.

One file drawer contained the files of registrants in all of the above described categories other than the II-A and I-Y classifications. Approximately 9/10ths of the files in this particular drawer had been removed.

Approximately 3/4ths of the files in the drawer containing the I-Y classifications had been removed. Also, files in another drawer containing I-Y classifications were practically all removed.

Approximately 600 files had been removed by these individuals. Local Board #33 has approximately 13,500 registrants.

At approximately 12:50 or 12:55 PM, while seated at her desk, a tall man dressed in clergyman's garb appeared at the second floor office followed by a short stout male, who carried a wire trashburning basket. When she asked what they wanted, the clergyman stated: "We're clergymen to prevent war", and other individuals entered the office immediately thereafter. Two women in this group approached the two other female clerks. The one short stout male proceeded to the second file cabinet and began removing files and placing them in the wire basket. [redacted] attempted to get up from her desk and the clergyman pushed her back, preventing her from stopping the other male with the basket. The clergyman said that he did not want to harm her.

After the basket was filled, the clergyman and the male who filled this basket started to carry the basket containing the files out of the office. [redacted] attempted to stop their progress by grabbing the wire basket, which was wrenched from her hands, cutting her index finger on the right hand and cutting her left leg below the knee. She ordered another clerk, [redacted] to call the police and then followed the group to the parking lot. She observed that they were burning the records. She returned to the office to notify the Selective Service Headquarters. To the best of [redacted] recollection, she recognized the clergyman, previously described as a tall man, as being Father PHILIP BERRIGAN, whose pictures have appeared recently in the press.

Shortly after the police arrived on the scene, she was confronted by newspaper reporters and photographers.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1Date 5/20/68

On the afternoon of this date, [redacted] Clerk, Local Board #33, was interviewed by representatives of various news media. [redacted] gave the following account of the events of that day:

She was at her desk in the office when one man came in. She was asking whether she could help him when another man came in. All at once a group came into the office; one [redacted] was carrying a wire trash burner.

They started dumping files from the file cabinets into the trash burner, and she tried to prevent them from doing so, but one of the men stopped her. As they were leaving with the trash basket--which was quite heavy, it took two of them to carry it--she grabbed it to try to stop them, but they wrested it away from her.

During the incident, the men kept saying, "Don't fight," "we don't mean you any bodily harm," and "you are doing these boys (presumably the registrants) harm." [redacted] meanwhile, pleaded with them not to take the files.

The entire incident did not last over five minutes. The removal of the files has seriously disrupted the work of the board, and it will require many hours of work to reconstruct the files. In addition, the removal of the files did a great injustice to the registrants, many of whom had gone to a great deal of trouble and expense to obtain statements from doctors and employers and had made plans based on their classifications. The disruption of the files did the boys as much harm as it did the board.

There is no likelihood that any of the registrants will be "lost" as a result of this action, as there are duplicate lists available at the board and/or at State Headquarters which will permit reconstruction of the files.

Files were taken from four drawers. As a rough estimate, there are about 150 files in each drawer. All of the files in all four drawers were not removed. Give or take some, there were possibly 500 to 600 files removed.

[redacted] replied, "Hurt me or not, it's my job", and she continued to struggle with the red-haired woman. The clergyman told [redacted] that she was doing wrong and "doing harm to these boys" (presumably meaning the registrants).

While [redacted] was struggling with the red-haired woman, another woman had placed herself in front of Mrs. PHIPPS, who was at her desk in the rear corner of the room. This woman had placed her hand against the wall, and kept Mrs. PHIPPS from leaving her desk.

At the same time, [redacted] was struggling with male members of the group who were at the file cabinets, removing files from the drawers and dumping them in the burning basket. In addition to the clergyman who had taken the telephone from [redacted] there was at least one other clergyman in the group around [redacted] a man in a short-sleeved white shirt, and another man that she could not identify as to whether he was a clergyman or a layman.

The telephone is by a window in the front of the office, and [redacted] saw some men who work in the building fixing a sign out front. [redacted] believed the men were [redacted] and [redacted] or perhaps [redacted] (phonetic). She continued to struggle with the red-haired woman, and finally succeeded in breaking the window with the telephone, and screaming to the men to call the police. She does not know whether the men heard her.

During the struggle for the telephone, the red-haired woman made several remarks to [redacted] to the effect, "Lady, please be nice, don't do this, we don't want to hurt you."

Finally, just after [redacted] had broken the window, the group began to leave. [redacted] saw [redacted] grab the wire basket the men were carrying out, and the men wrestled it from [redacted] and left. In the struggle, [redacted] received cuts on her hand and shin.

As the group left, the red-haired woman said to [redacted] "It's all yours", (meaning the telephone). [redacted] immediately dialed the operator and asked to be connected to the police or the FBI; she was connected with the police (she assumes it was the Baltimore County Police Bureau).

After reporting the event, [redacted] went downstairs (Local Board #33 is located on the second floor) and saw a large group of persons on the parking lot adjacent to the building. Included in the group were the two women and the men she had seen upstairs, and others. The persons were burning the files they had removed from Local Board #33 in the wire burning basket. [redacted] did not leave the building.

The police arrived while the files still were burning, and representatives of the press also were on the scene almost immediately. Included in the group [redacted] saw were three "seedy" looking, unkempt individuals who identified themselves to the police as "press". They flashed some sort of card which [redacted] assumes was a press card. She could not describe these individuals beyond stating they were white males. She saw these three around the fire.

[redacted] furnished the following descriptions of the individuals she saw in the office of Local Board #33:

Female who struggled with her. White; age possibly in late [redacted] 5'5½" (based on [redacted] own height, which is 5'4½"); slim build, red hair; fair complexion, nothing unusual about her makeup; no glasses; brown and white dress.

Female who immobilized Mrs. PHIPPS. White; age possibly in late 20s; a little shorter than 5'4½" (again based on [redacted] own height); short, dark, straight hair, medium complexion; no glasses; wearing dress or skirt and blouse, blue top, white skirt.

Clergyman who took telephone from [redacted] White; age indeterminate, possibly late [redacted] or [redacted] no distinct impression of height or weight - appeared "normal"; hair gave impression of crew cut or short, predominantly dark with some gray; very clear, blue eyes; no glasses, clerical garb.

BA 25-27469

Other clergyman, who was at files near [redacted] White; age possibly in [redacted] tall (taller than other clergyman); crew cut hair, predominantly gray, but gave impression that it originally was dark; clerical garb.

Coatless man who had wire basket. White; age possibly late [redacted] shorter than the clergymen, possibly 5'8" - 5'10", broad face, impression of stocky build; dirty blond hair; neat goatee; fair complexion; no glasses; white, short-sleeved shirt.

Other male. No distinct description - white male, unable to state whether Clergyman or layman.

[redacted] pointed out that during the entire time the group was in the office, she was struggling with the red-haired woman. She could not recall whether there were more persons than the six she described or partially described.

[redacted] Assistant Clerk, (part-time), Selective Service System, Local Board Number 33, 1010 Frederick Road, Catonsville, Maryland. [redacted] observed in the presence of Special Agent [redacted] at the Wilkens Station of the Baltimore County Police Bureau at a position of approximately 50' from the rear door, the nine individuals arrested earlier, as they exited the station to enter a police paddy wagon.

She advised as follows:

She identified the short dark-haired female as being the person that had entered the office of Local Board Number 33 earlier in the afternoon and approached Mrs. PHIPPS at her desk. At the time this individual entered the office of Local Board Number 33, [redacted] heard a voice state to the effect that members of the clergy concerned about Vietnam were present in the office of the local board. b7C

[redacted] identified the bearded man wearing a white short-sleeve shirt as being the individual that she had observed earlier in the afternoon carrying a wire basket into the office of the local board and having subsequently carried the same basket from the office of the local board with records of the Selective Service System in the basket.

She identified the red-haired woman as the person who had prevented her from making a telephone call at the office of the local board that afternoon during the time that the records of the Selective Service System were being taken from the filing cabinets and placed in a wire basket and subsequently removed from the office. The red-haired woman had held her by the wrists and physically restrained her efforts to use the telephone in order to summon help.

[redacted] part-time clerk, Local Board (LB) #33, Frederick and Beaumont Avenues, telephone (301) 747-3766, furnished the following information:

When she was struggling with the red-haired woman (subsequently identified as [redacted] for the telephone at LB #33 on May 17, 1968, one of the males in the group took the telephone from her, replaced it in the cradle, and told her, "Don't do that, we won't hurt you."

At that time, she had the impression that the man was in the garb of a clergyman. She had no distinct impression of his wearing a Roman collar, or of his height or weight, but recalled a blue shirt or vest type of clothing; she does recall his face, and particularly his very clear, blue eyes. She did not know at that time whether she could recognize him again if he was in different dress, but she felt she could identify him if she saw him from the neck up.

However, when she was called to testify at the preliminary hearing before the United States Commissioner on May 21, 1968, all the defendants were in the jury box. Her view was such that she could see only the faces and upper parts of the body of some of the defendants; she immediately recognized the man who had taken the telephone from her. He was not in the garb of a clergyman, but she was positive that he was the man. (This was the defendant, [redacted])

Mrs. ALICE K. PHIPPS, Clerk, Local Board #33, Catonsville, Maryland, home address 46 Briarwood Road, Catonsville, Maryland, telephone RI 7-8559, furnished the following information.

About 12:45 p.m. on May 17, 1968, she was looking up an address in the classification record book at Local Board #33. At this time, she looked up and saw two women and about five men come in the door to the main office of the Local Board. [redacted] Clerk, Local Board #33, tried to push the men back. The two women got past [redacted] Mrs. PHIPPS heard [redacted] say, "Please don't touch those files." Mrs. PHIPPS asked one of the women if she could help this woman. The woman said she was with them, pointing to the men in the room. This woman put her one hand up to the wall and her other hand on the desk, preventing Mrs. PHIPPS from moving from her desk. Mrs. PHIPPS tried to break the window to attract attention.

Mrs. PHIPPS described this woman as in her early [redacted] 5' 5" tall, 100 pounds, black hair, small build, wearing a royal blue dress.

There was a second woman near [redacted] on the other side of the room, but Mrs. PHIPPS did not notice what this second woman was doing. She described the second woman as in her early [redacted] 5' 5" tall, 100 pounds, small build, reddish hair and wearing a brown dress.

While Mrs. PHIPPS was in the corner of the room, blocked by the woman near her, Mrs. PHIPPS saw about five men taking Selective Service files from the drawers and throwing them in a wire basket and whatever missed the basket fell on the floor. Mrs. PHIPPS believed that these individuals stayed about five minutes and left, dragging the wire basket filled with Selective Service records, with them. There were about two or three men dragging the wire basket. Mrs. PHIPPS could not recall the descriptions of these men.

About five minutes after these individuals left Local Board #33 office, Mrs. PHIPPS went down the back steps and looked out the window from the first floor of the building. She saw that the records were in the wire basket and the records were on fire on the parking lot.

Mrs. PHIPPS stated that when she arrived at the window on the first floor of the building, she saw the last person get into the police wagon and saw the police wagon driven away from the parking lot. She was unable to describe this individual that she saw get into the police wagon.

After the individuals had gone from the office of the Local Board, [REDACTED] called the police.

Mrs. PHIPPS stated that the only individual she recognized was a priest, whose photograph she saw in the newspaper sometime ago. She is sure that this priest was Father BERRIGAN. She described this individual as 6' 1", about 56 years of age, gray hair, short, wavy, thin build and dressed in the garb of a clergyman.

Mrs. PHIPPS advised that all of the individuals who entered Local Board #33 were white and she could not describe any of the other males, who were at the Local Board.

Mrs. PHIPPS described the wire basket as a round wire basket, similar to chicken wire, about two feet in diameter and about two and one-half to three feet high.

He was working in the hall on the first floor of the building when he observed several individuals walking down the driveway and then he heard [redacted] Clerk, Local Board Number 33, Selective Service System, which is located on the second floor of the building, scream for help. He immediately called the police and told them something was happening at the draft board. He then went out into the parking lot and mingled with the crowd. Individuals formed a circle around a fire and after the fire started, they all started shaking hands with each other. Several attempted to shake his hand but he declined to do so. The crowd consisted of about 20 to 25 people and that approximately $\frac{1}{2}$ of them, he thought, were photographers and reporters. Some of the males present wore beards and had long hair. There were two clergymen in the crowd, one white male, about 6' tall, gray hair, age [redacted] 180 pounds, the other one - white male, 5'7", 140-150 pounds, age [redacted]

The following information and observations were obtained during the course of the preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner H. ALLEN MEZGER.

Mrs. MARY E. MURPHY, Clerk, Local Board #33, was the first witness. She described her duties, and stated that Local Board #33 had approximately 13,500 registrants. She related that shortly after noon, after she and the other two women had gone back to work, a man came up the stairs and entered the office. As she was saying, "Can I help you", another man entered the office. Then a great crowd appeared behind the first two men and entered the office. Mrs. MURPHY began saying "Please don't all come in here, go in the other room", but all the individuals entered the small office. It was quite crowded.

Mrs. MURPHY identified the first man to enter the office as PHILIP BERRIGAN, and the man carrying the trash burner as GEORGE MISCHE. They all rushed over to the files, and MISCHE began reading the labels on the drawers. When he came to the drawer of files of registrants available for induction, he opened the drawer and began dumping files into the basket. PHILIP BERRIGAN said, "I don't want to hurt you", but he shoved Mrs. MURPHY out of the way, away from the files. They then went into three other drawers, and again PHILIP BERRIGAN shoved her out of the way when she tried to stop them. She pleaded with them not to take the files.

PHILIP BERRIGAN and MISCHE took the basket and started to leave. Mrs. MURPHY grabbed the basket to stop them, but they wrestled the basket away from her. In the scuffle, the basket cut her leg. Her finger also was scratched but she does not know how that happened.

Mrs. MURPHY said that she thought there were five persons who entered the room, but that "they" told her she was mistaken. There were two women in the group, and a man wearing a lavalier or beads.

After Mrs. MURPHY lost control of the trash burner, the group left. She assumes they went down the stairs. Mrs. MURPHY then went back in the office and said, "Call Colonel HAYES". She then went downstairs, but not outside, thinking perhaps she could get a license number. She saw a fire, and a group of people standing around it. She then went back upstairs and said to the other girls, "My God, they're burning our records!" She could not identify the people around the fire.

From the inventory they have been able to make so far, Mrs. MURPHY stated all the I-A (available) files were taken; the files of persons who were to be inducted on June 17; the files of boys already processed (at Fort Holabird) for induction whose papers had not yet been returned; a whole drawer of II-A registrants; and about one full drawer and 3/4s of another drawer of I-Ys.

Mrs. MURPHY gave an estimate, which she said was just a guess, that as many as 600 files could have been taken.

Mrs. PHYLLIS MORSBERGER, Part-time Clerk, Local Board #33, was the second witness. She testified that she was busy looking at some records when she saw a woman with a skirt walk by on her right. At the same time she heard Mrs. MURPHY say, "Can I help you people?" and someone in reply mentioned the clergy. Then a group entered the office. One man in the group - the witness identified MISCHKE - was carrying a wire basket. When she saw the man with the basket she figured something was not right, and she went to the telephone intending to call for help. The red-haired woman - the witness identified MARY MOYLAN - grabbed her and tried to wrestle the telephone from her. As they struggled, whenever Mrs. MORSBERGER gained the advantage to the point where she was about to call, a man in the group came over and hung up the telephone. The red-haired woman kept saying, "I don't want to hurt you", "Don't do this". Mrs. MORSBERGER identified the man who took the telephone from her as THOMAS MELVILLE.

Continuing her testimony, Mrs. MORSBERGER stated that as she continued to struggle with MOYLAN, she saw two men who worked in the building outside, hanging a sign. She succeeded in breaking the window and screamed "Get the police".

Meanwhile, another woman - the witness identified MARJORIE MELVILLE - was keeping Mrs. PHIPPS from leaving her desk. The witness noted that Mrs. PHIPPS is about 75 years of age and has a heart condition. She then saw the men around Mrs. MURPHY going out with the basket - the same one that she saw carrying it in.

When they left with the basket, MOYLAN said, "It's all yours", and Mrs. MORSBERGER picked up the telephone and called the operator and asked to get the police and the FBI.

After calling the police, Mrs. MORSBERGER went downstairs and saw the fire in the basket and people standing around, taking photographs, and shaking hands with and hugging each other. This was in the parking lot, perhaps two car lengths from the building.

She identified PHILIP BERRIGAN as one of the men who came into the office, and DANIEL BERRIGAN and DARST as being at the fire. She identified two other individuals who were present in the courtroom audience as being at the fire and also being upstairs in Local Board #33 after the incident wanting to take pictures.

Mrs. MORSBERGER stated that the only other person downstairs when she was looking out the window at the fire was one of the janitors, Mr. TAUBER.

Upon showing a film at the hearing, United States Attorney STEPHEN H. SACHS suggested that members of the press position themselves in front of the screen so that they could observe.

The other two individuals identified by Mrs. MORSBERGER and known to SA [redacted] as [redacted] and [redacted] left the audience and included themselves in the gathering of press members to observe the film.

SUBJECT: REVEREND PHILIP FRANCIS BERRIGAN;

DGP. SSA, 1948 - CONSPIRACY

DATE: 5/31/68

Re Baltimore report of SA [REDACTED] 25-572981-11 5/23/68.

Investigation has disclosed that [REDACTED] and others met several hours before the draft records were burned on 5/17/68, later picked up an unidentified individual alleged to be a member of the press from BERRIGAN's hometown in New York, and then drove to the draft board where they parked until subjects had entered the building.

[REDACTED] was reported to have advised this group [REDACTED] resides in Baltimore, is active in the Baltimore Inter-Faith Peace Mission which has an office in Baltimore, and also frequents the American Friends Service Committee office in Baltimore. These two organizations openly advertise draft counseling. Further, [REDACTED] was identified with the four individuals involved in the bloodpouring on draft records in Baltimore on 10/27/67 (BUfile 25-562535). He has refused to be interviewed.

In an effort to determine whether [REDACTED] and others are further involved, considering a counseling, aiding and abetting violation, Bureau authority is requested to check [REDACTED] and the offices of the above two organizations in Baltimore. It is noted that five of the subjects, captioned case, upon being arrested on 5/17/68 stated that they resided in Washington, D.C. Investigation to date has not determined their whereabouts prior to arriving at the crime scene. It is possible that they had met beforehand in Washington, D.C. and that communication was had with them by [REDACTED] and others from Baltimore.

Baltimore requested Bureau authority to check [redacted] the Baltimore Interfaith Peace Mission, and the American Friends Service Committee office in Baltimore, in an effort to determine whether [redacted] and others were involved concerning a counseling, aiding and abetting violation. Bureau authority was denied. The U. S. Attorney, Baltimore, is not interested in subpoenaing these records.

Investigation indicates that obviously others were involved in this burning incident, at least to the extent of driving the subjects to the scene of the crime. [redacted]

[redacted] has been identified distributing the press statement to news media, as well as alerting newsmen ahead of time. [redacted] referred to the specific location of Local Board #33 prior to the incident, further indicating that he had specific knowledge of it beforehand. Others, including Catholic clergymen, also appeared to have known of the incident prior to its occurrence. [redacted] refused to be interviewed in the similar type violation (blood pouring on Selective Service System files on 10/27/67, Bureau file 25-562535). Others, including Catholic clergymen, had refused to answer specific questions concerning their possible knowledge of this incident.

This matter was discussed with U. S. Attorney STEPHEN H. SACHS [redacted]

A similar type statement was circulated by Reverend PHILIP FRANCIS BERRIGAN, [redacted] and two other individuals when they were involved in pouring blood over Selective Service records in Baltimore on October 27, 1967.
